...many Nix newcomers. Please help each other.

How to get started?

Don't install nix via your package manager, follow our

About Flakes: The Nix world is in an ongoing and long-lasting transition process from a channel-based mechanism toward the flake system. As flakes provide better reproducibility and are more verbose at the same time, we recommend to use flakes wherever you can, and right from the beginning of your journey. How flakes can be enabled is described in the wiki entry on flakes.

Nix is hard.

Keep going.
Ask questions.

No meetup in December. :(
